The humble Addreſs of the Miniſters of the Presbytery of Dunbrittain.

All which Addreſſes Her Majeſty receiv'd very graciouſly.

Turin, May 5. N. S. The Prince of Wirtemberg arriv'd here laſt Night from Milan. He is to command a Detachment of 6000 of the Emperor's Troops at Suza, which are already upon their March for that Place. By our laſt Letters from Milan we hear, that Prince Eugene's Equipage went lately from thence, and is to take its Rout thro' Bavaria, in order, as we ſuppoſe, to join the Army, which according to ſome late Advices is to be form'd upon the Moſelle, under the Command of that Prince. The General who is to be at the Head of the Imperial Troops in theſe Parts this Campaign, is not yet nam'd; but, it's generally believ'd, that Honour will be conferr'd on Count Down. We every Day expect Major-General Stanhope at this Court, having had News of his paſſing by Frankfort on the 25th of the laſt Month.

Vienna, May 9. N. S. Prince Eugene of Savoy returned hither on the 6th Inſtant in the Evening, having viſited the Courts of Duſſeldorp and Hanover in his Return from Holland. They write from Presburg, that Prince Eſterhaſi, Palatine of Hungary, having gone to perform his Devotions on a Mount Calvary, a little way out of Town, he narrowly eſcap'd falling into the Hands of a Party of Malecontents, who ſeiz'd on his Coach and ſix Horſes. They ſend daily from hence by Water, Proviſions, Ammunition, and all other Neceſſaries for their Army in Hungary, where they propoſe very ſuddenly to open the Campaign. The Body of the Daniſh Troops, which have been, for ſome time, quarter'd in Bavaria, is ſhortly expected here in their way to Hungary. Our laſt Advices from the Queen of Spain were of the 4th Inſtant, and left her Majeſty at Braunau, on the River Inn. The next Day her Majeſty was to lye at Oeting, where ſhe was to meet her Mother, and reſt the Day following. When the Queen arriv'd on the Frontiers of Bavaria, ſhe was complimented by Deputies from the States of that Dutchy, who preſented her with a Purſe of 2000 Ducats. In her Paſſage thro' that Country, her Majeſty had a Guard of Daniſh Cavalry.

Berne, May 12. N. S. The French Ambaſſador delaying ſtill to exchange the Ratifications of the Treaty of Neutrality for Neufchattel, this Canton has writ a Letter to deſire him to appoint a time and place for that Purpoſe, to which he has not yet return'd any Anſwer; however, they rely ſo much upon the Solemn Aſſurances he has given them, that they have recall'd all the Troops they have kept in Neufchattel for the Defence of that County ſince this Difference, and Count Metternich has disbanded the Regiment he had rais'd for the ſame Service. The Deputies of this Canton that were ſent to Zurich about the Buſineſs of Tockenburg are return'd hither; but not having yet made their Report to the Council of their Negotiation, it is not particularly known what they have done in it; however, it is ſaid in general they have compos'd the Differences which have ſo long diſturb'd that Country.

Berlin May 12. N. S. Letters from Warſaw of the 5th Inſtant ſay, that the Palatinate of Sendomir had ſuffer'd ſo much by the March of Troops thro' their Country, that they have been under great Difficulties to furniſh their Contingent for the Augmentation of the Crown Army. The Nobility of the Palatinate of Lublin have offer'd their Perſonal Service in the next Campaign, and Commiſſion'd the Caſtellan to acquaint the General of the Crown with that their Reſolution. General Mazeppa has notify'd to the Grand General, that he is willing to deliver up the Fortreſs of Bialocerkiow, and deſires him to ſend the Commiſſaries of the Republick to take poſſeſſion of it. Letters from Wilda of the 29th of April inform us, that the Kings of Sweden and Poland continu'd in their former Quarters; and that his Swediſh Majeſty, at the Requeſt of King Staniſlaus, had remitted the Contribution of 10000 Crowns which he demanded of that City.

Bruſſels, May 21. N. S. The Troops which have had their Quarters upon the Maeſe, and in other remote Garriſons, as alſo thoſe of Louvain, Mechlen, and Liere, encamp'd this Day at a ſmall diſtance from the Walls of this Place. His Grace the Duke of Marlborough rid out in the Morning to ſee them on their March, and afterwards took a Review of the Camp, which extends the Right at St. Ann Bede, to the Left at Veeway near the Grand Cauſey. On Thurſday the 24th, his Grace deſigns to advance towards Enghein, and will there be join'd by the Britiſh Troops, and the reſt from Flanders; the Forces already encamp'd are all compleat, and in very good Condition. We have no further Account of the Enemy, than that they continue encamp'd in different Bodies, and propoſe to join to Morrow, or on Wedneſday.

Hague, May 22. N. S. We hear the Elector of Hanover intended to ſet out on the twenty firſt Inſtant to join the Army upon the Rhine. His Son, the Prince Electoral, is expected here in his way to Flanders; where, 'tis ſaid, he will make the enſuing Campaign. Advices from Hamburg tell us, that the Troops of Sweden, Pruſſia and Hanover, to the number of 16000 Men, had Inveſted that City, being ſent thither to put an end to the Animoſities between the Magiſtracy and People. We have receiv'd freſh Intelligence of an Advantage obtain'd by the Muſcovites over the advanced Guard of the Swediſh Army. The Prince of Naſſau, Hereditary Governor of Friezeland, arriv'd at Amſterdam on the 18th Inſtant, and proceeded the ſame Day on his Journey into Flanders, where he is to Command in Quality of General of the Foot. 'Tis ſaid the Duke of Bavaria will ſtay at Metz 'till he can make ſome probable Conjectures which Way the Allies will bend their courſe on that ſide.

Kenſington, May 15. On the 11th Inſtant the Comte de Briançon, Envoy-Extraordinary from his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Savoy, had Audience of the Queen, and afterwards of his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Denmark, to congratulate the Diſappointment of the Pretender's Invaſion on North-Britain with French Troops; being introduc'd by Sir Charles Cotterel, Maſter of the Ceremonies.

Whereas the following Agreement hath been made with the Court of France, viz. That all Fiſher boats of both Nations, which ſhall be employed in catching Herrings, Mackarel, Oyſters, Lobſters, and all ſorts of ſalt and freſh Fiſh, ſhall not be moleſted, from the Orcades to the Land's End of this Kingdom, the Iſlands of Guernſey and Jerzey included, and from the height of Oſtend to Bayone; but that if any Fiſhing-boats be found with Salt, or Barrels, or any ſalted Fiſh of both ſides, and taken, they ſhall be made lawful Prize; His Royal Highneſs, Lord High-Admiral of Great Britain, &c. does hereby ſtrictly charge and require all Captains and Commanders of Her Majeſty's Ships and veſſels, as alſo all Perſons who now have or ſhall have private Commiſſions or Letters of Marque, not to moleſt any of the Fiſhing-Veſſels belonging to the Subjects of France, within the Limitations before-mentioned, as they will anſwer the contrary at their Peril.
